

“The Quality of Your Thinking Determines the Quality of Your Life”

Editorial...

An Onam celebration recollects the tradition of Kerala and extends a warm welcome to tourist to witness a beautiful occasion. Students and faculty members have actively participated in sharing their greetings with others. It was lively to see a lot of competitions among students and faculty members. Satya was the highlight of the celebrations. All sitting together and sharing the lunch with all others is a very special occasion. Tug of War and Uri Adi competitions have added liveliness into the Onam celebrations. The guests Ms, Aiswarya Kalyani and Mr. Aneesh have performed in front of the students. Student teams have taken active part and encouraged their friends as well. JCET has taken part in the Pookolam Competition organized by Department of Tourism in Palakkad District. The final year ECE students are appreciated for their contribution in terms of time, energy and coordination towards the competition. We wish them all and others as well for making a wonderful onam every year. May God bless all.
